

Keith Adams

March 1, 1987 – January 1, 2013

Keith Adams, 25, of Ogallala, died January 1, 2013, in his home.

Keith was born March 1, 1987 in Ogallala, the son of William and Christine (Swanson) Adams. He attended elementary school in Ogallala. After graduating from Ogallala High School in 2005 he attended Mid Plains Community College in North Platte.

After graduating in 2006 he was employed at several auto body shops. He was currently a painter's helper at Dukes Auto Body Shop in Brule. Keith also worked part time for Kent Hicks and at Sand's Edge.

His hobbies included cars, collecting antique car memorabilia, and spending time with his numerous friends.

Preceding him in death was his grandfather Eldon Adams in 1997.

Survivors include his father William Adams and his mother Chris and her husband Darrell O'Neal, all of Ogallala; a brother Seth Adams of North Platte, and a sister Brandi Adams of Lincoln. Grandparents: Mike & Genice Berry and Wayne & Gloria Swanson, all of Ogallala. Great-grandmother Bessie Hawks of Elgin. Two step-brothers: Kendall O'Neal and Ronald O'Neal, both of Ft. Lewis, Wash. and a step-sister Justa O'Neal of Mullen.

The family chose cremation. The Memorial Service will be at 2 p.m. on Friday, January 4, in the Ogallala Church of Christ with Pastor George Robison officiating. Following the Service will be Committal of the urn at the Ogallala Cemetery.

A memorial has been established in his name.
