

Travis Don Williams

June 19, 1978 – February 20, 2012

Travis D. Williams, 33, formerly of Ogallala, died February 20, 2012 in his home in Aliso Viejo, Cal.

Travis Don Williams was born June 19, 1978 in Grant, Nebraska, the son of Don E. and Deb Hornkohl Williams. Travis received his early education in Ogallala Public Schools. After graduating in 1996, he attended college in Kearney. He transferred to UNL and received a two year Computer Science Degree. Travis was employed by Prophet Systems in Ogallala for eight years.

He moved to Aliso Viejo, Cal. and was a computer technician for Land Enterprise for several years. Travis was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Ogallala. His hobbies included bowling, walking, billiards, fishing, and playing card games. He especially enjoyed spending time with his family and using the computer.

Preceding him in death was his father Donald E. Williams, Jr., his brother Carl E. Williams, grandparents: Elmer and Carolyn Kurth, Estelle Dunwoody, and Donald E. Williams, Sr.

Survivors include his mother Deb and her husband Steve Holliday; two sisters: Shinnen (Marcus) Brown and their son Ashton; and Michelle Williams, all of Ogallala.

The family chose cremation. Memorial Services will be Wednesday, March 7, at 10 a.m. in Draucker Funeral Home. Rev. Eric Wait of New Hope Church will officiate. A memorial has been established in his memory.
